

The Convenience of Lies

Will one lie too many ruin it all? Always unpopular and a misfit, Mackenzie Fairbanks finally gets a chance to start over when she moves to a new town. But she doesn't become the wildly popular new girl she hoped to be. Finding an unlikely friend in a Russian girl, Kira, they quickly become best friends. When Kira goes to Russia for a holiday, Mackenzie vows to finally get the bad boy, Ramon, to notice her. And he does. As the sparks begin to fly and Mackenzie finds her place, Kira's return from vacation brings about new challenges for the girls. Suddenly, Kira and Mackenzie are catapulted into a mystery involving several acts of vandalism - acts that could get them all in trouble. Mackenzie knows one thing is for certain; the culprit is closer than she ever imagined. Now, it's up to Mackenzie to decide what's more important: her friend or her heart. Can she find the truth within the lies without losing everything she ever wanted?
