

Black Gold of the Sun: Searching for Home in Africa and Beyond

At the age of thirty-three, Ekow Eshunborn in London to African-born parents travels to Ghana in search of his roots. He goes from Accra, Ghanas cosmopolitan capital city, to the storied slave forts of Elmina, and on to the historic warrior kingdom of Asante. During his journey, Eshun uncovers a long-held secret about his lineage that will compel him to question everything he knows about himself and where he comes from. From the London suburbs of his childhood to the twenty-first century African metropolis, Eshuns is a moving chronicle of one mans search for home, and of the pleasures and pitfalls of fashioning an identity in these vibrant contemporary worlds.
