St. Johnsbury (sometimes locally known as St. Jay) is the shire town (county seat) of Caledonia County, Vermont, United States. The population was 7,603 at the 2010 census. St. Johnsbury is located approximately 10 miles (16 km) northwest of the Connecticut River and 48 miles (77 km) south of the Canadian border. St. Johnsbury is the largest town by population in the Northeast Kingdom and serves as a commercial center for the area. In 2006, the town was named Best Small Town in National Geographic Adventures Where to live and play feature. The more densely settled southern half of the town is defined by the U.S. Census Bureau as a census-designated place (CDP), where over 81% of the population resides. NOT TO BE MISSED!!!
