Not illustrated. 1884 Excerpt: ...of those sons are my daughters. I, a female, call those males my nephews who are the sons of my brothers, and the daughters of my brothers are my nieces; but my sisters children are my children as their father is my potential or actual husband. I, a male, call my sisters son my nephew, and her daughter is my niece. I, a male or female, call all males and females my grandchildren who are the children of my sons, daughters, nephews, or nieces. I, a male or female, call all men my uncles whom my mothers call their brothers. And my aunts are all females who are my fathers sisters as well as those who are the wives of my uncles. But my fathers sisters husbands, I being-a male, are my brothers-in-law, being the potential Affinities of. EGO, a male: g Wigaqa, my irife. a Wifes brother group.
