I have written 8 books about the Philippines; 2 more Vacation or short visit oriented, and 6 books each one with a different focus. If you are serious about moving to the Philippines then I suggest you start with the first book I wrote on the Philippines which is just entitled THE PHILIPPINES. If you have not read that book, you are not getting the full story by just picking and choosing of the other books. They are broken up into different books rather than 1 big book because I don't think too many people would be clicking on buy now if the book was 600 pages and was priced at $69.95. The way I have done this for you is so you can read 100 pages or so of good information and if you are not scared off by that information, then you can purchase another of my books which will give you further information in another direction and so on and so forth. By the time a serious person who is really wanting to know if moving to the Philippines is right for them has read the 6 books I have written on the subject, they will have more than enough information to know if that move is right for them or not. Once you make the decision to move here, retired here, as I have, then you can look for more detailed information which is available FREE on the internet about different Visas that are available etc and some of the more legalistic particulars. That stuff is changing all the time and so it's hard to put that in a book and even a year later have it still be good current information. Google is your best bet for that kind of fluid information. What my books will tell you is what I feel you need to know about so you can make a determination whether or not retirement in the Philippines is right for you. Consider investing in your future and read a few of my books, they could save you a bundle!
