

How to Look Happy: a romantic comedy (Unlucky in Love Book 3)

From bestselling romantic comedy author Stacey Wiedower comes a story about finding love in the social media age... Jen Dawson is an interior designer at the top of her game, with a job at the Souths hottest design firm and a fiance whos on the short list of the citys most eligible catches. But her perfectly designed plans for her life fall apart when her prima donna boss screws her over and her fiance dumps her on the same day. Whats a self-respecting Southern girl to do? ... is what she should have asked. Instead, she drowns her troubles in cocktails and then adds trouble of her own by drunkbooking a Facebook status that gets her in more hot water at work. As her ex reappears at all the wrong times, Jens flirtations heat up with all the wrong men until she finds the one guy who makes her realize love just isnt something she can plan. And when she vows to set her life back on track and stage a comeback, Jen uncovers shady business at her design firm that could take down the entire operation ... and her, but only if she lets it.

What critics are saying: I thoroughly enjoyed the story with all of its twists and turns, and I really connected with the authors writing. I cant wait to read her other novels and I highly recommend you get a copy of all of them for yourself too! Living Life with Joy, 5 out of 5 stars! (30 First Dates) was so poignant and funny and true to life. It doesnt happen often that a book inspires me outside of the pages. I liked this book so much that I decided to make my own bucket list. The Bad Mommy Diaries, 5 out of 5 stars! I absolutely loved this book! Highly recommended! Chicklit Club This is actually my first book from Stacey Wiedower but I sure hope it wont be the last! From the beginning I got caught up in the story. Overall, a super cute beach read! Chick Lit Plus
