Healthy Purim Cookbook Yummy Jewish Holiday Recipes By Barbara Lori The foods served at the Purim table recall the Biblical story of Queen Esther and how she saved the Jews of Persia from the evil Haman. The signature dishes eaten on this joyful holiday are kreplach, a savory dumpling filled with meats, cheeses or vegetables, and Hamantaschen, a pastry filled with nuts, fruits, poppy seeds or chocolate. There is also a delicious recipe for gluten free hamantaschen. Lori provides plenty of variations on both themes. She also includes main dishes such as sweet & sour brisket, turkey breast stuffed with matzo and fennel, baked salmon with mango salsa, and of course Bubbes classic chicken soup. Lori offers vegetarian options among the recipes, as well as instructions on forming the loaves of challah specially braided to symbolize the hangmans rope.
