

The Story of Louie

In an old number of Punch, under the heading Societys New Pet: The Artists Model, is to be found a drawing by Du Maurier, of which the descriptive text runs: And how did you and Mr. Sopley come to quarrel, dear Miss Dragon? Well, your Grace, it was like this: I was sitting to him in a cestus for The Judgment of Paris, when someone called as wished to see him most particular; so he said: Dont move, Miss Dragon, or youll disturb the cestus. Very good, sir, I said, and off he went; and when he come back in an hour and a alf or so he said: Youve moved, Miss Dragon! I avent! I said. You ave! he said. I avent! I saidand no more I adnt, your Grace. And with that I off with his cestus an wished him good-morning, an I never been near him since!
