Only let me sit The grey remainder of the evening out, Idle, you call it, and muse perfectly How I could paint were I but back in France, One picture, just one more--the Virgins face, Not yours this time! I want you at my side 230 To hear them--that is, Michael Angelo--Judge all I do and tell you of its worth. Will you? To-morrow, satisfy your friend. I take the subjects for his corridor, Finish the portrait out of hand--there, there, And throw him in another thing or two If he demurs; the whole should prove enough To pay for this same Cousins freak. Beside, Whats better and whats all I care about, Get you the thirteen scudi for the ruff. 240 Love, does that please you? Ah, but what does he, The Cousin! what does he to please you more? I am grown peaceful as old age to-night. I regret little, I would change still less. Since there my past life lies, why alter it? The very wrong to Francis! it is true I took his coin, was tempted and complied, And built this house and sinned, and all is said. My father and my mother died of want. Well, had I riches of my own? you see 250 How one gets rich! Let each one bear his lot. They were born poor, lived poor, and poor they died: And I have laboured somewhat in my time And not been paid profusely. Some good son Paint my two hundred pictures--let him try! No doubt, theres something strikes a balance. Yes, You loved me quite enough, it seems to-night. This must suffice me here. What would one have? In heaven, perhaps, new chances, one more chance--Four great walls in the New Jerusalem 260 Meted on each side by the angels reed, For Leonard, Rafael, Angelo and me To cover--the three first without a wife, While I have mine! So--still they overcome Because...
